

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, National Reconnaissance Office

SUBJECT: Duties and Functions of the Deputy Director, NRO

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Same Subject, 26 April 1963
[redacted]

I concur in your memorandum of 26 April 1963 as an initial attempt to define methods and procedures for carrying out the duties and functions of the Deputy Director, NRO. I should like to make the following two points, however:

a. When serving as Acting, DNRO, it will not be always possible to occupy the Pentagon office on a full time basis. However, every effort will be made to spend as much time on NRO activities, either in the Pentagon or in the CIA, as would be required to carry out the functions of Acting, DNRO.

b. While it may not be necessary to include a written statement in the paper, I believe it is essential that the DNRO be consulted on all major NRO programing, policy and budgetary actions recognizing, of course, that in some cases the timing may make this difficult or impractical. A repetition of the situation which occurred on the NRO aircraft operations is intolerable and only serves to delay or confuse the situation.
